Energy Industry Forecasting Systems

Jill Quick

Senior Market Analyst, RBAC Inc.

Jill Quick has fifteen years of experience in the energy industry, enjoying various Commercial roles across global crude and refined products analysis, scheduling, trading, natural gas fundamentals analysis, and systems design. She has worked for integrated oil companies, a large MLP, and a Fortune 100 cooperative; her experiences have provided a broad view of a variety of business structures and performance drivers.

Her passion and strength is long-term fundamentals forecasting, and using her knowledge of the Commercial value chain to provide holistic and relevant perspective to businesses. She was a power user of GPCM[®] for over seven years before joining RBAC in 2016. In her analytical experience, she has used GPCM to support recommendations on executive investment decisions ranging from pipeline capacity and storage contracts to legacy portfolio acquisitions.

Jill is a cum laude graduate of Oklahoma State University, receiving her Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical Engineering in 2000. She currently resides in Minneapolis, Minnesota.
